TENNESSEE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

502 Deadrick Street, 4h Floor
Nashville, Tennessee 37242-0001

February 6, 2023

The Honorable Bill Lee
Governor

The Honorable Randy McNally
Lieutenant Governor

The Honorable Cameron Sexton
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Members of the General Assembly,

It is with great pleasure that I present to you the 2021-2022 Annual Report of the Tennessee Public Utility Commission. This report has been prepared in accordance with Tennessee Code Annotated § 65-1-111.

Two additional commissioners were added to the Commission with the passage of legislation during the 2021 legislative session. The Commission has seven commissioners as a result. The Governor, the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House each have two appointments. The seventh commissioner is a joint appointment made by all three appointing authorities. Lt. Governor McNally appointed Mr. Clay R Good to one of the newly created commissioner positions in 2021 and Mr. David Crowell was appointed to the other newly created position by Speaker Sexton in 2022.

The Commission has jurisdiction over Tennessee's investor-owned utility companies including electric, telephone, water and wastewater, and natural and methane gas. Further, the Commission serves as the agency that performs the safety inspections of intrastate natural gas pipelines and mediates consumer complaints against utility service providers.

Through our numerous consumer outreach efforts, the TPUC continues to provide Tennessee citizens with information that can enhance their daily lives and provide protection and relief from unwanted telephone solicitations and fraudulent activities through the Tennessee Do Not Call program. The Commission also serves the hearing and/or visually impaired populations with its Telecommunications Devices Access Program (TDAP). It provides telecommunication devices for eligible Tennesseans. In addition, the TPUC has initiated efforts to promote safety awareness. The state's underground utilities, through the Underground Utility Damage Prevention Act, is an effort designed to prevent harm to people, property, and underground utility facilities. The provisions of the Act are codified in Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-31-101 et al. of which the TPUC's role is to assist the Underground Utility Damage Enforcement Board by providing administrative and investigative support.

We remain focused on the work that we have been entrusted to perform, as well as the role we play in protecting Tennessee consumers and maintaining an environment that is vigorously competitive. To the members of the Tennessee General Assembly, we look forward to working with you in continued service to the citizens of the Volunteer State.

Warmest Regards,

in Bavaria, Germany. Eventually John and his four siblings, along with their mother and father, left the seaport town of Bremerhaven, Germany on board the General Adolphus Greeley and arrived in the United States at the port of New Orleans in October of 1951. The Hie family came to the U.S. as part of the Displaced Persons Act, an act on the part of the federal government authorizing the admission into the U.S. a limited number of Europeans displaced following World War II. The Hie family's admission into the U.S. was sponsored by a farmer in Maury County, Tennessee; and following their transition to Middle Tennessee, the Hie family immediately began to learn the English language and the culture of the south.

Commissioner Hie attended grammar school in a two room school house and graduated from Columbia Central High School in Columbia, Tennessee. At that time, there were several smokestack industries in Maury County that provided jobs for summer employment. These jobs, along with some scholarships, paid for Commissioner Hie's college education. Commissioner Hie graduated from the University of Tennessee's College of Pharmacy in 1969 and was drafted into the army the following year. His pharmacy training enabled him to work as a pharmacist at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, which he described as an invaluable experience. After an honorable discharge from the army, Commissioner Hie and a business partner opened their own drugstore and ran it for ten years before selling it.

Commissioner Hie transitioned from the world of pharmacy to the world of finance, beginning work for the venerable J.C. Bradford investment firm in 1984 advising clients about their investments. After the sale of J.C. Bradford in the year 2000, John went to work for investment firm Stephens, Inc. of Little Rock, Arkansas. John eventually retired from Stephens in 2015 to spend more time with family and friends, although he still works a few hours a week at Carezone Pharmacy in Nashville. John and his wife Trish have one son, one daughter-in-law, one grandson AJ, and one grand-dog named Luna.

Our Mission

To ensure the safe and reliable provision of public utility services to the citizens of Tennessee.

The Commission's mission is fulfilled through three major operational components: consumer assistance and regulatory oversight of utility operations and market conditions, and public safety of underground utilities.

Consumer Assistance Component

The Commission offers an efficient forum for the filing, investigation, and hearing of consumer complaints against regulated utilities. The Commission also engages in consumer outreach activities in an effort to educate consumers on its services and the regulated utilities.

The Commission manages consumer-friendly programs such as the Do Not Call Program, the Do Not Fax Program, the Telecommunications Devices Access Program (TDAP), and the National Deaf & Blind Equipment Distribution Program (iCanConnect).

Regulatory Oversight Component

The Commission has regulatory oversight over privately-owned utilities serving Tennessee consumers. The Commission provides an accessible and efficient process that is fair and unbiased. Through this process, the Commission evaluates many items including requests for rate modifications, applications for authority to provide service, requests for approval of financing transactions, requests for approval of mergers, petitions for transfer of authority to provide service, numbering appeals, requests for numbering allocations, requests for rule modifications, petitions for approval of interconnection agreements and utility-to-utility complaints. The Commission also monitors utility markets to evaluate current trends and determine the need for future action.

Underground Utility Damage Prevention

As delegated by the U.S. Department of Transportation Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration, the Commission ensures the safety of natural gas distribution and transmission pipeline facilities in the state.

The Commission seeks to ensure the protection of the state's underground utility infrastructure. As such, the Underground Utility Damage Prevention Act, signed into law in 2015, is designed to prevent harm to people, property, and underground utility facilities. The provisions of the Act are codified in Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-31-101 et al., and the Commission's role is to assist the Underground Utility Damage Enforcement Board by providing administrative and investigative support on matters related to underground utilities.

Budget Summary

Appropriations, Fees, and Expenditures

The Tennessee Public Utility Commission (TPUC) budget for fiscal year 2021-2022 (FY21-22) was $9,688,300. Actual expenditures by the agency during the fiscal year totaled $7,344,500. This represented a total savings of $2,343,800 (24.2%) from budgeted expenditures.

Total revenues collected by the TPUC during FY21-22 were $8,064,600. The majority of the revenue was derived from utility inspection fees paid by the public utilities regulated by the Commission. Total inspection fee revenue collected during FY21-22 was $5,543,300. In addition to inspection fee revenue, the TPUC received $1,082,600 in interdepartmental revenue related to the TDAP/Relay program, $908,900 in federal revenue, $230,300 in registration fees from telemarketers for the “Do Not Call” program, $104,700 in current services fees attributable to reimbursements related to the Underground Utilities Damage Enforcement Board, $76,800 in annual fees from cable companies, $60,000 in utility penalties, $55,400 in penalties collected by the Underground Utilities Damage Enforcement Board, and $2,600 in filing fees.

All TPUC revenues, except for revenue received from contributions for TDAP and penalties levied by the Underground Utilities Damage Enforcement Board, are earmarked for the Public Utilities Account and are to be used to defray the cost of operations by the TPUC. Should revenues in future fiscal years not be sufficient to cover the costs of the TPUC for a given fiscal year, the deficit would be funded by the Public Utilities Reserve Account. As of June 30, 2022, the Public Utilities Reserve Account balance was $6,727,700. The TDAP Program revenue is specifically earmarked for the purchase of TDAP equipment for the qualifying disabled citizens of Tennessee and the administration of the program. The TDAP Reserve Account had a balance of $679,700 as of June 30, 2022. The Underground Utilities Damage Fund had a balance of $114,400.

The TPUC also funds the majority of the administrative costs of the Office of State Assessed Properties which is part of the office of the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury. For FY21-22, the TPUC’s total inspection fee revenue of $5,543,300 was reduced by $558,500 for its share of the subsidization of the cost of the Office of State Assessed Properties. Due to this reduction, net utility inspection fee revenues were $4,984,800 and net revenues to the agency for FY21-22 totaled $7,506,100.

TPUC FY 21-22 Revenues

The FY21-22 actual inspection fee revenue received by the TPUC was $5,543,300. However, this amount was reduced by $558,500 by the Comptroller’s Office for the amount charged to TPUC for its share of the cost of the Office of State Assessed Properties.

The TE is responsible for crafting recommendations concerning cost of capital and the return on equity in rate case proceedings. The TE provides analytic support to other groups within the TPUC on a diverse range of topics including financial derivatives used in the natural gas industry, implementation of orders issued by the Federal Communications Commission and interpretation of statistical analysis. The TE identifies and analyzes market trends that may impact regulation or consumers in natural gas, electric, water, wastewater, and telecommunications markets. The TE also has responsibility for analysis of mergers, acquisitions and the issuance of financial instruments by public utilities. The TE often coordinates agency staff and rule making actions initiated by the agency. The TE also produces several reports for the agency and completes special projects as requested by the Executive Director and Commissioners.

Gas Pipeline Safety Division

Bryce Keener, Director

Travis Aslinger, Deputy Director

Mission

The mission of the TPUC's Gas Pipeline Safety Division (GPSD) is to contribute to the safety and reliability of natural gas distribution and transmission pipeline facilities and to minimize the risk to public health and safety associated with the accidental release of natural gas.

Chapter 601, Title 49 of the United States Code provides the statutory basis for the pipeline safety program. Chapter 601 establishes a framework for promoting pipeline safety through Federal delegation to the States for all or part of the responsibility for intrastate pipeline facilities under annual certification or agreement. Chapter 601 authorizes Federal grants-in-aid of up to 80 percent of a State agency's personnel, equipment, and activity costs for its pipeline safety program.

The State of Tennessee enters into certification agreement each year with the Secretary of the Department of Transportation and accepts the responsibility for regulation of intrastate natural gas pipeline facilities. The program is administered by the DOT Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA) and the TPUC is the regulating state agency. The GPSD enforces safety regulations in accordance with the Tennessee Code Annotated ("Tenn. Code Ann.") § 65-2-102, the Tennessee Comprehensive Rules and Regulations ("Tenn. Comp. R. & Regs.") 1220-04-05 and Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("CFR") Chapter 1, Subchapter D, Parts 191, 192, 193, 195 and 199 as incorporated in the Tennessee rules by reference.

Natural gas is transported statewide through approximately 40,000 miles of distribution and transmission lines that provide service to over 1,356,000 customers. Distribution operators range in size from 8 to 307,000 customers and include 6 private companies, 70 municipalities, 24 utility districts, 2 liquefied natural gas plants and storage facilities, 7 apartment complexes, and 18 housing authorities. There are 18 jurisdictional intrastate transmission lines.

Utilities Division

David Foster, Director

Mission

To provide the Commissioners of the TPUC with detailed technical and financial analyses to aid the Commissioners in making informed decision on issues related to the establishment of just and reasonable rates for public utilities, audits results, new certificates of service and telecommunications issues related to the continued development of competitive markets.

The division is comprised of ten full-time and three part-time employees with diversified experience and background. The Staff's credentials and background consist mainly of Certified Public Accountants along with an engineer. The Staff has over 260 years of combine experience in the utility industry.

The division is responsible for analyzing all utility petitions relating to rate changes for investor owned electric, gas, telecommunications, water and wastewater service utilities operating within the state. Of note, the Commission regulates rates for approximately 425,000 residential, commercial and industrial customers receiving natural gas service in Tennessee (primarily Chattanooga and the metro Nashville area); 49,000 electric customers in the Kingsport; and 84,000 water customers in Chattanooga, while maintaining regulatory oversight over approximately 150 individual water and wastewater systems.

The financial analysis focuses on establishing a reasonable return the utility can earn on its investment as well as establishing a reasonable amount of prudent expenses to be recovered. The division also develops and recommends rate designs for customer classes, e.g., residential, commercial and industrial. Each utility segment also has unique characteristics and distinctive federal and state mandates for review.

The division works closely together with smaller utilities especially water and wastewater in order to ensure their viability both financially and from a quality of service standpoint. The larger utilities (e.g., Piedmont Natural Gas, Atmos Energy, Chattanooga Gas, Tennessee-American Water and Kingsport Power) are continually monitored from a financial/rate standpoint. The division also conducts a series of annual audits on utilities regarding their financial status and for compliance with TPUC rules and applicable state and federal laws, orders and tariffs.
